First Annual Sale,

THURSDAY, JULY 6th, 1876.

NEW YORK:

PAUL P. J. DONVAN, STATIONER AND PRINTER, 28 BROAD STREET.

1876.

THIS being the first Sale at FASHION STUD FARM, the proprietor deems it proper to state, that it embraces the whole produce (with the exception of a few reserved, which are intended strictly for breeding purposes), of the Stallions and Mares of this Farm, since its establishment, none having ever been sold either at private or public sale.

It is the intention in future, to hold annual sales, in the month of June, embracing the produce of the preceding year (none of which will be sold at private sale), upon terms and conditions similar to those on which this sale will be conducted.

The First Annual Sale will take place at the Farm, on Thursday, July 6th, 1876, commencing at 12.30 P. M. Terms Cash. All the Stock offered will be sold to the highest bidder, without reserve, and must be removed within five days, unless otherwise arranged.

Auctioneer, Capt. P. C. KIDD, of Lexington, Ky.
